STUDENT COMMITTEE FOR ACTIVE CONCERN,
TULSA, OKLAHOMA

Re Oklahoma City memorandum dated May 6, 1968.

[redacted]
The University of Tulsa, Tulsa, Oklahoma, advised on June 27, 1968, that a short time before June 13, 1968, the Student Committee for Active Concern (SCAC) held a meeting at the University and discussed organizing a demonstration in connection with the Republican Governor's Conference scheduled to be held in Tulsa during June 13, through June 15, 1968, at the Camelot Inn. The demonstrators would express concern for fair housing, poverty and peace. Also discussed was the possibility of presenting a resolution along these lines to the Governor's Conference.

b6
b7D

Members of the SCAC persuaded [redacted] at the University, to organize this activity. [redacted] said he did not believe [redacted] was a member of SCAC; however, she was chosen because of her popularity with other students and her ability to organize such an activity. [redacted] said he had noted in local newspapers that such a demonstration did take place at the Governor's Conference on June 13 through June 15, 1968, and that [redacted] of the group. He said he did not know whether any members of SCAC took part in the demonstration nor did he know the names of any of the other demonstrators.

~~NEW LEFT MOVEMENT~~
~~(KEY ACTIVISTS)~~

100-7588 (Inst.)
100-7582 (Inv.)

In January, 1968, the Bureau designated certain individuals as Key Activists in the New Left movement. At that time, appropriate offices were instructed to conduct continued and intensive investigations of these individuals with the objective of developing detailed and complete information regarding their day-to-day activities and future plans for staging demonstrations and disruptive acts directed against the Government. These individuals were extremely active and most vocal in their statements denouncing the U. S. and calling for civil disobedience and other forms of unlawful and disruptive acts.

Due to the success of the Key Activists Program, consideration is being given to expansion of this Program. Recipient offices are to review pertinent files to determine those individuals who are leaders or prominent in the New Left movement in their divisions for possible inclusion in an expanded Key Activists Program. In making this determination, you should consider if the individual was rendered ineffective would it curtail such activity in his area of influence.

Within 30 days of receipt of this communication, recipient offices are to advise under this caption the identities and file numbers of individuals to be included under the expanded Key Activists Program on a UACB basis. Included should be a brief statement relating the basis for designating each individual as a Key Activist. At that time, under individual case caption, a communication is to be forwarded to the Bureau outlining what specific steps are being taken to obtain adequate informant coverage of the individual.

It is expected the Key Activists Program will be given intensive investigative attention and close supervision by participating offices. You should be continuously alert to recommend additions or deletions where warranted and not wait for the Bureau to call to your attention the need to include an active, obvious leader of New Left activities in your division. Such communications should set out Key Activist in parentheses after the character and contain adequate justification for recommended action. Key Activist should not, however, be used in the caption of any communication prepared for dissemination. These individuals will be included in the Security Index in Priority I.

To insure that the Bureau is kept abreast of the day-to-day activities of the individuals designated as Key Activists, each office must maintain high level informant coverage on them as well as the organizations they are affiliated with to develop information regarding their sources of funds, foreign contacts and future plans. Live informant coverage of these individuals and groups is absolutely essential and is expected to receive priority attention. You should explore all avenues of investigative coverage and submit any recommendations under appropriate case caption for consideration by the Bureau.

All investigative matters pertaining to the New Left movement are being closely followed by the Bureau. Key Activists are considered to be of primary investigative importance and cursory handling of these cases will not be tolerated. The overall objective of this Program is to render Key Activists ineffective and thereby radically restrict their influence and the effectiveness of the New Left movement. In order to obtain the desired results, it is expected intensive, aggressive investigation will be afforded these cases.

Airtel to SAC, Albany et al
100-446997

It is imperative to note the shift to violence in the New Left movement. Sabotage, arson, bombing and a variety of obstructive tactics have been openly advocated during the past year. In September, 1968, within a five-day period three ROTC establishments were sabotaged and a fourth threatened. In addition, a Central Intelligence Agency office at Ann Arbor, Michigan, was bombed during that month. These instances of openly made plans for violence and the brazen follow-through of action are examples of the problems facing the Bureau in this field and the absolute need for intensive investigative efforts in these matters. Successful prosecution is the best deterrent to such unlawful activity. Intensive investigations of Key Activists under this Program are logically expected to result in prosecutions under substantive violations within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction.

OSU Coed Arrested Here, Charged in Drug Violation

Combined efforts of Stillwater Police officers, the Payne County Sheriff's office and members of Oklahoma State University

Wednesday night brought about the arrest of an OSU coed and pending arrests of a number of male students living in a dormitory on the campus, in separate drug raids.

Carol Ann Bilotta, 21, arts and science senior, who lists her home town as Ada, was arrested at an apartment, 615½ W. Third, rented in the name of Steve Cooper.

Although Miss Bilotta lists Ada as her hometown in the university director, the card made out at the sheriff's office listed her hometown as Montclair, N.J., and her nearest relative, an uncle with a Chicago, Ill., address.

The card made out in the sheriff's office had a charge of possession of marijuana. Formal charges filed by Assistant District Attorney Floy Dawson were for unlawful possession of stimulants, as pills and other materials were enroute to Oklahoma City to be analyzed by state narcotic experts.

Numerous pills, along with a water pipe, were confiscated after the arrest in the apartment of Cooper, an arts and science sophomore, listed from Oklahoma City. Miss Bilotta gave her address to sheriff personnel as 1023 W. 10th. Cooper was not apprehended at the time of the raid.

Miss Bilotta made headlines last month when she was called to Chicago to answer a disorderly conduct charge, stemming from her participation in demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention. She was fined $45 in a Circuit Court on a reduced charge of failing to disperse on police orders. She had stated earlier that she had been employed in Chicago during the summer and denied that she had yelled at police. She was arrested along with a Seattle man.

Rumored to be a member of the controversial group on many university and colleges campuses Students for Democratic Society, she also was a participant in a peace march which occurred during the homecoming parade, Nov. 26, here in Stillwater.

In the raids of rooms in East Bennett Hall, officers found a number of various types of questionable capsules, pills, etc. but no arrests of the occupants of the rooms were made at the time. The rooms are listed on the third floor of the large complex, which houses university male students.

The arrests are pending findings of the narcotic bureau as to their content.

When law enforcement officers entered the apartment in which the arrest of Miss Bilotta was made, she attempted to flush some of the capsules down the toilet, while others were found on the floor, in the base of a statue and other locations in the rooms.

Sad Judge Sends Bright, Young Foursome to Prison

By John Bennett

Four young Oklahomans — defended as intelligent men with potential bright futures — were sentenced to prison in Oklahoma City Wednesday for selling marijuana and dangerous drugs.

They were pictured as victims of an indulgent society, gullible, intelligent but immature.

U. S. District Judge Luther Eubanks expressed sadness as he sentenced John Milton Ratliff, 20, Tulsa, former leader of the Students for Democratic Society at the University of Oklahoma, and three of his friends.

Ratliff was sentenced along with Richard Martin Wasserman, 19, Oklahoma City; Edmond Val Rinn III, 20, of Chickasha, and Tom Saunders Ramsey, 19, Oklahoma City.

Ratliff drew a total 15 years on a 10-count federal grand jury indictment; Rinn 10 years; Ramsey 8 years and Wasserman 7 years.

Judge Eubanks reminded the four youths that the law has "long, sharp teeth" on narcotics violations.

But he made it clear he was keenly disappointed in sentencing youths he called intelligent.

Each of the defendants apologized to the court for his actions.

"I realize my actions were immature," Wasserman said. "I didn't have the judgment or maturity to realize what I was doing at the time."

Eubanks then told Wasserman he couldn't recall a 'single case' in which more friends and relatives had written in support of his character.

"I'm sorry," he told Wasserman, "You've got a bright mind, a good family."

David M. Cook, attorney for Ratliff, defended Ratliff from what he called a public misconception in what the youth believes.

He said that during a bail bond hearing Ratliff told government prosecutors he did not believe in American racism and the Vietnam war and felt that America has been mismanaged in the past.

This, Cook said, was the minority report at the Democratic Convention in Chicago.

"If this be treason, then he is the worst offender of them all," Cook said.

He said Ratliff carries a draft card, and has never spoken of refusing induction.

(However Ratliff protested loss of his student deferment when the Tulsa draft board re-classified him in November, 1967, resulting in nationwide publicity. Student deferment was restored for him about a month later.)

He said Ratliff's attitude evidences a refreshing thing for society — that he recognizes the moral and legal wrongdoing of trafficking in narcotics.

Eubanks made it clear Ratliff's involvement in SDS activities had no bearing on the case.

"But you were indeed the ringleader among the illicit traffic of marijuana," Eubanks said.

In defending Ramsey,

James W. Bill Berry pictured all defendants as victims of a society that constantly subjects them to a barrage of publicity on the harmlessness of marijuana.

"The boys are a product of our times," Berry told the court.

Eubanks told Ramsey that he was indeed saddened over the case.

"You have the highest I. Q. of any person ever appearing before me," he said. "It makes me sad."

After sentencing, Mrs. Ratliff's mother broke into tears.

Rinn, also an OU student, was accused with Ratliff with selling undercover narcotics agents amphetamines, marijuana and hashish, a derivative of marijuana.

Rinn also was charged in another indictment with Wasserman of selling LSD to a federal agent.

All of the defendants were arrested last August.

On 2/1/71, [redacted], advised that at a meeting of the Houston Chapter of YSA, held 1/24/71, it was brought out that in Norman, Oklahoma, the State is suing the University of Oklahoma Student Government or the Student Government Budget on charges of misappropriation of funds. According to source, this case is based on the new Internal Revenue Service Guidelines, and the vice president of the Student Body is a YSA comrade.

For the information of Oklahoma, YSA is affiliated in Houston with the University of Houston and has in the past been able to utilize student senate funds to further their own aims and purposes. It is requested that Oklahoma City furnish sufficient details of the matter involving the suit being brought against the Student Government in order that Houston may likewise pursue the same thought as regards YSA at the University of Houston.

FBI targets may be notified

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi may soon instruct Justice Department officials to notify perhaps thousands of Americans that they were victims of the FBI's harassment campaign, knowledgeable department sources say.

"I think the attorney general is looking very favorably on the plan," a ranking official said in response to questions Monday.

Levi expects to receive written recommendations this week from officials developing the plan.

The FBI conducted 12 counterintelligence programs, known as Cointelpro, at various times between 1956 and 1971 to harass and disrupt militant political groups on the left and right.

The targets included the nonviolent Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the more militant Black Panthers and Students for a Democratic Society, old-line Communist and Socialist groups, and the Ku Klux Klan.

Court documents made public earlier this week show that one Cointelpro target, the Socialist Workers party, also was the target of numerous FBI burglaries to obtain information about the party.

The tactics were intended to disrupt activities of the target groups and harass and discredit their members. The operation involved sending derogatory letters anonymously to the employer, parents or spouse of an individual targeted for harassment. finding out where they are now and notifying them."

Under the Cointelpro label, the FBI also manufactured and distributed phony political tracts in an effort to stir dissension among various political groups.

The late civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. may have been the most prominent victim of the concentrated harassment effort. The FBI wiretapped King's home and office and whispered tales of his sexual conduct in an effort to discredit him, according to testimony before the Senate intelligence committee.

King's SCLC was a Cointelpro target, but the activities against King were broader than the counterintelligence program alone.

Some groups and individuals have learned that they were Cointelpro victims through lawsuits against the FBI and requests for FBI files under the Freedom of Information Act.

But many other victims may not have the money, the patience or the interest to pursue a lengthy battle for information. The Justice Department plan would make such information available to them for free and in private.

"There are those of us who feel very strongly this ought to be done," said one ranking official. "It ought to be done because (Cointelpro) was wrong in the first place and it was done by the department."

But he continued, "There are real problems with how you accomplish it without actually enhancing the damage that has already been done. The greater problem is going to be the possible invasion of privacy in

The privacy problem would arise if department officials were forced to question neighbors or employers in an effort to locate an individual named in the FBI files, the official said. Many victims may no longer live at the addresses listed in FBI memos as much as 20 years old.

Dear Senator Bellmon:

Judge Webster has asked me to respond to your
November 5th inquiry on behalf of [REDACTED]

~~100-7582~~
The entire matter involving the FBI's counter-intelligence program (COINTELPRO), which encompassed the regrettable event involving Jean Seberg, was reviewed by the Department of Justice and then Attorney General Levi issued a public statement regarding this program on April 1, 1976. At that time, a special review committee was established to notify individuals who were not previously aware of such actions and who may have been personally harmed by this program. After notification, those involved were, upon request, furnished FBI documents pertaining to them by this Departmental review committee.

In 1970, the FBI in Los Angeles, as part of COINTELPRO, did recommend that a news story regarding Jean Seberg be furnished to the press. After a careful review of our files and interviews with the individuals involved, there is no evidence that the FBI actually carried out this proposed action. Additionally, the columnist involved has been quoted as stating that the source for her column was not the FBI but a journalist whom she would not name. The documents regarding this proposal were made available to Ms. Seberg in 1976 by the Department of Justice in accordance with procedures initiated by the Attorney General.

Our review of the Seberg matter determined that all of those persons who had final or other executive review have departed from the FBI.

I want to assure [] that FBI procedures are now defined and governed by guidelines of the Attorney General and a legislative Charter for the FBI incorporating these guidelines is pending before Congress. These documents clearly delineate the jurisdiction and functions of the FBI where no such instructions or guidelines existed before. In addition, internal administrative and auditing procedures insure, as well, that FBI domestic investigations are based on criminal conduct and the FBI is answerable to certain Congressional committees having oversight authority. Judge Webster has made a personal commitment that as long as he is Director, the FBI's conduct and performance will conform to the guidelines mentioned.

Your enclosures are being returned as requested and I hope you will contact us again if you have any other questions.

Dear Sir:

I noticed in the Oklahoman several days ago that the FBI had planted a false story regarding an American citizen.

I consider the defamation of character a very serious act and am appalled that our government should engage in this against our own citizens. I would appreciate your looking into this matter and determining who is responsible for the idea and for approving this act. If this act violates statutes, then the individual should be charged and tried. If no law was violated, certainly legislation should be introduced to protect us from our own government in the future.

FBI Admits Spreading Gossip About Actress Jean Seberg

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI admitted Friday that in 1970 it spread gossip that actress Jean Seberg, who committed suicide recently, had become pregnant by a member of the Black Panther Party.

The bureau released an internal memorandum which showed that it had sought to discredit Miss Seberg because she supported the Black Nationalist cause.

"It is felt that the possible publication of Seberg's plight could cause her embarrassment and serve to cheapen her image with the general public," the memo said.

Her husband at the time, Romain Gary, a French diplomat and author, charged this week that the FBI had destroyed Miss Seberg's life by spreading the rumor about her pregnancy.

In acknowledging the bureau's action, FBI Director William H.

Webster asserted Friday that "the days when the FBI used derogatory information to combat advocates of unpopular causes have long since passed. We are out that business forever."

Miss Seberg's body was found last Saturday night in her car near the Paris apartment she had been sharing with an Algerian actor.

Government documents show that in the memo, dated April 27, 1970, the Los Angeles office of the FBI asked bureau headquarters in Washington for permission "to publicize the pregnancy of Jean Seberg, well-known movie actress . . . by advising Hollywood gossip columnists in the Los Angeles area of the situation."

The Los Angeles office suggested the best way to get the story out would be to have a fictitious person send a note to Hollywood columnists about Miss Seberg. The proposed note would read:

"I was just thinking about you and remembered I still owe you a favor. So I was in Paris last week and ran into Jean Seberg who was heavy with baby. I thought she and Romain had gotten together again but she confided the child belonged to (blank space) of the Black Panthers. The dear girl is getting around."

On May 6, 1970, the FBI, then under the direction of J. Edgar Hoover, responded that the idea was a good one.

Dear Congressman Edwards:

Your January 28th inquiry on behalf of [redacted] [redacted], regarding the matter involving Jean Seberg, has been referred to me for reply.

In 1970, the FBI in Los Angeles, as part of its counterintelligence program (COINTELPRO), did recommend that a news story regarding Jean Seberg be furnished to the press. After a careful review of our files and interviews with the individuals involved, there is no evidence that the FBI actually carried out this proposed action. Additionally, the columnist involved has been quoted as stating that the source for her column was not the FBI but a journalist whom she would not name. The documents regarding this proposal were made available to Ms. Seberg in 1976 by the Department of Justice in accordance with procedures initiated by the Attorney General. 100-7582-64

Since Ms. Seberg's death and after a former husband made public statements concerning this information, these documents were released by the FBI to the news media with a brief statement made by Judge Webster.

Today, of course, our Agents clearly understand the limits placed on our investigative activities, and never again will the FBI consider the disclosure of personal information to harass advocates of unpopular causes. We are out of that business forever.

I trust this information will be of assistance in corresponding with your constituent.

Sincerely yours,
